MR. HUNT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Sims.

MR. HUNT: Your Honor, again, as the witness is approaching the witness stand, the Defense would object to any questions or responses, based on the fact that we believe this witness will testify to the general character of the Defendant in the community. We would object to any such questions or testimony, on the basis of it being a violation of the Defendant's Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights to due process and confrontation of witnesses and cruel and unusual punishment.

THE COURT: Overrule the objection.

MR. HUNT: Your Honor, again, if we could have a running bill on this, with the understanding that we are not only objecting on this basis, we are also moving the Court for a mistrial, based on any kind of responses he would make to these questions.

THE COURT: All right. And I will grant you your running bill.

MR. HUNT: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right.

12 I left out one objection. And that was, that
13 the responses calls for hearsay from this Defendant. I

MR. BUTLER: Your Honor, may the record reflect that the witness has identified the Defendant?

THE COURT: The record will so reflect.

BY MR. BUTLER:

O Detective Salinas, do you know his reputation in the community in which he resides and among the people with whom he associates for being a peaceful and law-abiding citizen?

A Yes. I do.

O Is that reputation good, or is it bad?

A It's bad.

MR. BUTLER: Pass the witness.

MR. HUNT: We have no questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You may step down, Mr. Salinas. And you may be excused.

MR. HUNT: Your Honor, again, I would re-urge all of the objections I have previously made. And, again, at this time, I would urge the Court for a mistrial, on that basis.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. FEAZELL: Your Honor, at this time, we would offer for the jury's consideration, all of the prior testimony in the case in chief.

THE COURT: All right.
